

Being Healthy, Happy, Safe

Information for people wanting a stall

This is an event for and run by adults with learning disabilities in Norfolk

We have limited space at The Forum so not everyone who applies will get a stall.

We will try and have different types of stalls.

We have 3 zones - healthy, happy, safe.

Please tell us which zone your stall fits best.

Tell us your 2nd choice zone as well if you can.

Each stall needs to have an activity for people with learning disabilities to get involved with.

Please tell us about this on your form.

To apply for a stall complete the form and email admin@openingdoors.org.uk by 9.00am Monday 22 April 2024

Information for people wanting a stall

This event is run by people with learning disabilities

The steering group, people with learning disabilities, will decide the stalls at their next meeting.

We will be fair and get lots of different types of stalls.

Make sure to explain the activity you will have for people to do.

We will let you know by 3 May if you have been successful or not.

At the end of May we will send out a floor plan and final instructions for the day.
